

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers is recommended HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS. This medicine has been found to have a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

INTEMPERANCE.

—But at the last it blith like a serpent, and stings like an adder. Prov.
Oh! take the maddening bowl away!
Remove the poisonous cup!
My soul is sick—its burning ray Hath drunk my spirit up; Take, take it from my loathing lip.
Ere madness fire my brain;
Take, take it hence! nor let me sip Its liquid death again.

Oh! dash it on the thirsty earth, For I will drink no more;
It cannot cheer the heart with mirth That grief hath wounded sore;
For serpents wreath its sparkling brim,
And adders lurk below;
It hath no soothing charm for him Who sinks oppress'd with woe.

Say not, "Behold its ruddy hue—"Oh, press it to thy lips!"
For 'tis more deadly than the dew That from the Upas drips:
It is more poisonous than the stream Which deadly nightshade leaves, Its joys are transient as the beam That lights its ruddy waves.

Say not, "It hath a powerful spell "To soothe the soul of care;" Say not, "It calms the bosom's swell, And drives away despair!"
Art thou its votary? Ask thy soul—Thy soul in misery deep—Yea, ask thy conscience if the bowl Can give eternal sleep?

Then, hence away! thou deadly foe Of happiness the whole—Away, away! I feel thy blow, Thou waler of the soul!
Henceforth I ask no more of thee, Thou bane of Adam's race!
But to a heavenly fountain flee,
And drink the dews of GRACE.

EPITAPH.

The following true Epitaph was written in a Church-Yard in England:

"Go home, dear friends, dry up your tears,
I must lie here till Christ appears:
My debt is paid—my grave you see—Prepare yourself to follow me."

Under which a wag wrote the following lines:

"To follow you I'm not content, Unless I know which way you went!"

Which produced an addition from a third hand, of a more serious character:

"Mock not the tenant of this lowly grave—
Just Justice mark upon thy tomb—a knife!

The awful hand of death will point the road,
And virtue only lead thee to thy God!"

mercial Advertiser.]

Died.

At Stratford, on the 23th of January, 1818, the Rev. NATHAN BIRNEY, aged 103 years, 3 months and 9 days.— The whole number of his descendants was 258, 296 of whom are now living.— He had 12 children, 76 grand children, 165 great grand children, and 7 of the fifth generation. Of his 12 children, 6 were sons and 6 daughters—a daughter was born next after a son in every instance: nine of them are still living, whose ages added together amount to 582 years; the other three died at 47, 65 and 77. He married but once, and lived 69 years with his wife, who died at age of 88. It is a singular fact that of all the branches of this numerous family, not one of them have been reduced to want—most of them are in prosperous and all of them are in comfortable circumstances. His funeral was attended on Friday last by a large concourse of people among whom were about one hundred of his posterity. A solemn and appropriate sermon was delivered on the occasion by the Reverend Stephen W.
Jephson, from this text, "And all the days of Manasse were nine hundred, sixty and nine years and he died."

It signifies nothing to say we will not change our religion, if our religion changes not us.

ALEXANDRIA. FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASH-INGTON.

Thursday, February 12, 1818.

It is to be regretted that the committees who prepare bills for the House of Representatives should find the house so often at variance with them on the subjects which it is the very intent and meaning of their appointment to shape into a form and on principles congenial to the general design of that body. They are appointed to shorten the process in the house, and to facilitate its proceedings upon it. But do they do so? Look for an answer to the several bills which, after passing their committees and having their sanction, are nevertheless tossed about, and turned, and bedded, like new mown hay, for a week or ten days—every one thrusting in his fork—sometimes his naked fingers into it, and then—as if it had been only a moot point started in inns of court or the temple of exercise, dismissed—turned out—as if a sudden thought took them, and they should cry out, "Why, what the deuce have we been doing all this time with a measure not fit for us to pass? Out with it! out with it!"

Were those old congresses, whose decisions we are so modestly disposed to censure, permitted to rise from their graves and look on at such things, what would be their feelings?—would they cry or would they laugh? Perhaps both.
Were it given to them to advise, they would perhaps say, Young gentlemen, study eloquence, and declaim at home.
The concern of the nation are of too serious a kind to be made topics of exercise—too awful to be made the instruments of egotistical parade or vanity.

Yesterday, one of the bills suggested by benevolence, and indeed, (though lawyers may dispute the correctness of the term, while mere moralists never will)— by justice—after having been digested by a committee, and then read twice—after being for several days worried up and down with amendments and counter-amendments, was at last arrested by the yellow fever of the day—the political, or rather politic contagion of the time—serious care of that which needs no care, the treasury—was rejected; and a multitude of indigent orphans and widowed mothers are consigned to half famine, to wretchedness and rage. If there be any who think that the people of the United States will look with approbation upon the desertion of such objects, out of an overdone care of the Treasury, they are sorry politicians in private affairs, whatever they may be in public ones.

A report from the war department respecting general St. Clair, was laid on Tuesday before the house. It complet-ly refutes the unthinking assertion that the general owed a balance to government.

SEVERE COLD.

At Baltimore, on Monday last, the Thermometer stood, at sunrise, at 3 degrees above 0: at noon, 16 degrees, and on Tuesday morning, at 2 degrees below 0, or 34 below the freezing point.

Washington, Feb. 11.

The bill reported in the House of Representatives by Mr. Forsyth, from the committee to whom was referred so much of the president's message as relates to the commercial intercourse between the United States and the British West India islands and possessions in North America, was worthy of more particular notice than, from its technical title of "a bill supplementary to the act regulating duties on imports and tonnage, &c." we gave to it. It is a literal transcript, we believe, of the bill reported by the same committee at the last session; which was ably debated, but was laid over as deserving more mature consideration. Few subjects of the present session are likely to excite more interest than this bill for countervailing the British colonial policy; if we except perhaps the bill for establishing a uniform system of bankruptcy, which seems to be loudly demanded from all the commercial sections of the country. [See Int.]

We have satisfaction in stating that a contract has been entered into for erecting at the mouth of the Mississippi a light house, on a scale and in a style commensurate with the magnitude of the trade of that river. The obstacles which have so long impeded the accomplishment of this object are at length overcome, and it is contemplated, it will be fully effected within two years. [Ibid.]

By a recent arrival in the Chesapeake letters have been yesterday received from on board the Franklin, 74, commodore Stewart, from East Coves, Isle of Wight, which is in sight of Portsmouth harbour, stating her arrival there on the 15th December, after a prosperous voyage of only twenty-one days from Cape Henry light house, (bad weather and sovere gales of wind from the north and north east during the first week of December to the contrary notwithstanding) and a subsequent date from Southampton states her arrival at Portsmouth, and her being constantly visited by numbers of the curious gentry from the neighborhood, all ranks of naval and military officers, the builders and artificers of the royal docks, &c. &c. all of them speaking in commendation of her exterior appearance, and her justly distinguished roomy accommodations within; some, however, saying she was a ninety gun, or first rate, in disguise! [Ibid.]

INCREASE OF THE NAVY.

OFFICIAL REPORT.

Navy Commissioners' Office,
January 20, 1818.

Sir—The board of navy commissioners have been honored with your communication of the 9th instant, enclosing a copy of a resolution of the honorable the senate, and requiring of them all the information within their knowledge, in relation to the objects of that resolution.

In obedience to this call they make the following report, and accompany it with a detailed statement, marked A, which they trust will be found to meet fully your views of the information required.

Of the proceedings which have been had under the act for the gradual increase of the navy, the exhibit will show:

That contracts have been entered into for the live oak frames, cut to moulds, of eight line of battle ships, and eight tri-gates; that the frame of one line of battle ship and one frigate, is now cutting from Blackbeard Island, under the direction of the board, from timber belonging to the U. States; that one line of battle ship is now building from promiscuous timber, collected at this navy yard, and that there is also promiscuous live oak for framing a frigate, collected and collecting at this yard, which make the frames of ten line of battle ships and ten tri-gates.

Of the contracts, however, it has been ascertained that one which embraced the quantity of live oak required for the frames of one line of battle ship and two frigates, will not be executed; and doubts are entertained whether another of the contracts, which is for the frames of two ships of the line and two frigates, will be executed. Hence the commissioners can only state, with any degree of certainty, that provision has been made for the frames of seven ships of the line and six frigates.

Of the copper and lead required in the construction of the ships authorized, when the quantity contracted for shall be delivered, (and nearly all has been delivered,) we shall have a sufficiency for all the ships of the line authorized, and for ten frigates.

Of white oak and pine, it will be perceived that we have contracted for, and otherwise provided, as follows:

A sufficient quantity of oak plank for seven ships of the line and four frigates.
Beams, for five ships of the line and four frigates.

Ledges, long combings, and ranging timber for seven ships of the line and five frigates.

Knees for six ships of the line and three frigates.
Mast stuff for three ships of the line and two frigates; and we have also engaged and have now delivering, the keels and keelson pieces for five ships of the line and one frigate.

Of cannon, carronades, round and grape shot, we have contracted for the quantity required for two ships of the line.

Of iron, we have engaged, and have now on hand, nearly all that is required for four ships of the line and one frigate.

Upon the subject of the steam batteries, authorized by the law for "the gradual encroachment of the navy," the commissioners have engaged one steam engine of one hundred horse power.

The commissioners have also established an anchor shop at this navy yard, where all the anchors required will be made. They are also making at this yard iron cables.

One ship of the line is ordered to be laid down at each of the following navy yards, viz.

Portsmouth, Boson,
New-York, Philadelphia, Washington, Norfolk.

Preparations are also making in each of these yards, and materials to a considerable extent have been collected.

Of the ships ordered to be laid down, those at New-York, Norfolk, and Washington, have been put on the stocks, and are progressing; those at the other points named, will be laid down as soon as circumstances will admit.

The ships now building under the act for "the gradual encroachment of the navy," are regular two deck ships, and unless guns be mounted on their gangway, which is not usual, they will mount the same number of guns with our present seventy-fours. Hitherto no ship having but two decks, has rated higher than an eighty; and we beg leave to observe, that the ships now building, are of inferior capacity to some ships of other nations, having but two decks.

The payment of monies not coming within the province of the board, they can offer no definite information upon that subject. Upon this branch of the enquiry they can only afford information as to the probable amount of the contracts made by them. As to the payments made upon these contracts, and upon the purchases of the respective navy agents, as also the payments to the superintendents of timber, moulding, the carpenters and laborers employed in procuring timber, in the construction of the ships, and in the preparatory arrangements in the different navy yards, and for the transportation of timber, it is presumed that the auditor of navy accounts can afford precise information.

On the subject of advances upon contracts, the board beg leave to observe, that in two instances only, namely, those for cannon, carronades, and shot, have they stipulated to make advances. In these cases they agreed to depart from their general rule upon the subject, with a view to the improvement of the ordinance of the navy, which, having been found extremely defective, rendered it necessary to make a series of experiments, which subjected the contractors to considerable expense.

The navy commissioners would here respectfully observe, that their attention has been engaged, since the act of the 29th April, 1817, in procuring, within the shortest period possible, the live oak timber necessary in the construction of the ships authorized by that act. They found, in the cuts, much difficulty in forming contract for this article; the live oak growing only in places remote from our navy yards, and where it can be got out only in certain months in the year, interposed insurmountable difficulties to its being immediately procured; no contractor would engage to deliver the frame even of a frigate in less than two seasons. One cutting season only having elapsed since the passage of the act of the 29th April, 1817, will show why a greater quantity of this timber has not at this time been delivered.

The commissioners now entertain no doubt of being able to procure all the live oak required for the ships authorized; as well as every other material necessary in their construction and, if it should be the wish of the executive, to launch them within the period contemplated by the law, and for the sum appropriated.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, sir, your most obedient servant,

JOHN RODGERS,
President of the Navy Board.
The hon. Benj. W. Crowninshield, Secretary of the Navy.

The following story is given in a late French paper.

A young man, about twenty or twenty two years of age, was lately going home about 11 o'clock in the evening, through a street rather unfrequented, and near the theatre of the Boulevard, when he was seized suddenly by three strong men who applied a handkerchief to his mouth, covered his eyes, and carried him in spite of his efforts to a coach which had stopped at a short distance. They at the same time endeavored to tranquilize him and to set him at ease as to his safety, by assuring him that it was only an adventure de femme which was in question.— After having driven on two or three hours at the least, they made him alight, and he found himself, when the baggage was removed from his eyes, in a small apartment, neat and well furnished. His guide told him to be patient, and that his orders should be attended to on his ringing a bell. They made him a good fire, and persuaded him to go to bed when he had some what recovered from his first alarm.
He remained a prisoner till the day after the next, well served, well warmed, and having books supplied him to amuse himself. No noise was heard in the house, and the windows of the room, which were defended by bars, looked on an inner court, in which were some poultry; this was all he could observe. The third day about four o'clock in the evening, they begged him to pass into a drawing room in which a lady, they said, waited for him. He followed his guide, but when he was in the presence of the mysterious lady, she cried out "it is not he," and fainted.—When she returned to her senses she made apologies to the prisoner for the mistake of her people, and invited him with much politeness to dine with her. He accepted, and remained a very handsome woman of 25 or 30 years of age, a sparkling brunette, whose language, tone and manner announced a person of birth. The servants who waited had no liveries. The dinner was simple, the lady polite but serious. The young man at last begged the liberty of retiring, representing to her that his absence would cause much uneasiness to his friends, and expose him to the risk of losing his employment. The fair incognita set him at ease on this head, and promised that if this misfortune happened, she would take means to repair it.
She even took means with him to be informed of the event, at the same time keeping her own secret; but she would not consent to let him go away immediately. They parted, and he was told to hold himself in readiness to set out at three in the morning. At that hour he was blinded, as usual, taken from the room and put into the coach, and after a journey about as long as the former, he was set down about break of day, at six in the morning; two men on horseback escorted him about six hundred paces further, while the coach drove slowly on. His guides told him he was at the plain of Boulogne, galloped away, leaving the young man to rub his eyes and meditate at leisure on his singular adventure.

The following is a description of some of the most particular Scenes, Songs, Choruses, Processions, &c.

Act I. Scene 1st.
A grand perspective view of the Mountains of Switzerland.

In the fore ground IBRAHIM'S COT-TAGE. Selim enters, Fatima appears at the cottage window, and they sing the celebrated Duet of "Twilight glimmers on the deep." The procession of Blue Beard and all his train over the Mountains on Horses back. Blue Beard himself elegantly mounted on his HORSEMAN CHANGAR. Dialogue and Chorus. "See the Bushaw appears." Dialogue. The Procession returns—Fatima and Irene address the train, and seated in a beautiful palanquin, carried by four African dressed in the costume of the country.

Scene 2d. An Apartment in Blue Beard's Castle. Duet, Shakabac and Beda, "Tick-a-Tack."

Act II. Scene 1st. A CUT WOOD.
All the Horses discovered lying down, as in ambush—their leaders across their bodies asleep in different parts of the stage.
They are aroused from their slumbers by the shrill sound of the trumpet, at which noise they suddenly rise. The Horses, as if inspired with the bravery of their leaders, throw themselves into a variety of positions, which has heretofore astonished every beholder. Selim enters—the Horses marshal themselves into a line. Chorus, "Ruba-Dub," and the troops exit to the scene of Fatima.

Scene 3d. Hall in the Castle. Song, "Tambourine Roundelay," by Mrs. Parker. Song, "Conjugal Strife," by Mr.
Entwistle. Song, "Whilst pensive I sit on my Love," Miss Trajetta.

Scene 4th. The BLUE ENCHANT-ED CHAMBER, ELEGANTLY DECORAT-ED. Duet, "No one new," Miss Tra-jetta and Mrs. Parker. The curiosity of Irene is inflamed by her into Fatima, and they apply the key to the fatal chamber door. The interior of the apartment appears and discovers a SEPULCHRAL BUILDING—in the centre of which is a SKELETON SEATED ON A TOMB, with a dart in his hand—and over his head, in characters of blood, is written, The punishment of Curiosity.

Act III. Scene 1. A TURRET in the eastern part of Blue Beard's castle, in which Fatima is confined. Quartetto—Mr. Entwistle, Mr. Hutton, Miss Trajetta and Mrs. Parker.—Look from the turret, sister, down."

Scene Last—presents a superb (exterior) view of BLUE BEARD'S CAS-TLE. On the east side, A DRAW-

Leader of Selim's party, Parker

The following is a description of some of the most particular Scenes, Songs, Choruses, Processions, &c.

Act I. Scene 1st.
A grand perspective view of the Mountains of Switzerland.

In the love ground IMRAM's Cottage. Selim enters, Fatima appears at the cottage window, and they sing the celebrated Duet of "Twilight glimmers on the deep." The procession of Blue Beard and all his train over the Mountains on Horses back. Blue Beard himself elegantly mounted on his HANOVERIAN CHARGER. Dialogue and Chorus. "See the Bashaw appears." Dialogue. The Procession returns—Fatima and Irene added to the train, and seated in a beautiful palanquin, carried by four Africans dressed in the costume of the country.

Scene 2d. An Apartment in Blue Beard's Castle. Duet, Shakabac and Beda, "Tick-a-Tack."

Act II. Scene 1st. A CUT WOOD. All the Horses discovered lying down, as in ambush—their leaders across their bodies asleep in different parts of the stage. They are aroused from their slumbers by the shrill sound of the trumpet, at which noise they suddenly rise. The Horses, as if inspired with the bravery of their leaders, throw themselves into a variety of positions, which has heretofore astonished every beholder. Selim enters—the Horses marshal themselves into a line. Chorus, "Rub-a-Dub," and the troops exit to the rescue of Fatima.

Scene 3d. Hall in the Castle. Song, "Tamboourine Roundelay" by Mrs. Parker. Song, "Conjugal Strife," by Mr. Entwistle. Song, "Whilst I think of my Love," Miss Trajetta.

Scene 4th. The BLUE ENCHANTED CHAMBER, ELEGANTLY DECORATED. Duet, "No one here," Miss Trajetta and Mrs. Parker. The curiosity of Irene is insatiable by her into Fatima, and they apply the key to the fatal chamber door. The interior of the apartment appears and discovers a SEPULCHRAL BUILDING—in the centre of which is a SKELETON SEATED ON A TOMB, with a dart in his hand—and near his head, in characters of blood, is written, The punishment of Curiosity.

Act III. Scene 1. A TURRET in the eastern part of Blue Beard's castle, in which Fatima is confined. Quartetto—Mr. Entwistle, Mr. Hutton, Miss Trajetta and Mrs. Parker—"Look from the turret, sister, down."

Scene Last—presents a superb (exterior) view of BLUE BEARD'S CASTLE. On the east side, A DRAW-BRIDGE; on the west, A GRATING, or PORTCULLIS, leading into the castle. Other parts of the Fortress seen in the perspective.

Storming of the Castle by Cavalry and Infantry.
Selim's party is about to cross the draw bridge, when it is suddenly hoisted by Blue Beard's soldiery. They retire and make an effort to force the Portcullis, in which they succeed; and the HORSES, KNEELING, enter into the castle. A General Combat, horse and foot. One of Selim's party heroically mounts the draw bridge, which before impeded their efforts, and gallantly cuts it down, which gives an opportunity for his company to pass, and the horses to ascend. In the course of the battle, are several SINGLE COMBATS between the knights on Horse and Foot—the various DEATHS of the HORSES, and the final OVERTHROW OF BLUE BEARD.

Sally for Sale.

THIS Estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaster of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and those now sited are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed; the out-houses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind. For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds, and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax. FRANCIS LIGHTFOOT LEE. September 19

Valuable Land for Sale.

THE subscriber wishes to sell two valuable Tracts of Land—one situated in the upper part of Fairfax county, adjoining the lands of Samuel G. Griffith, and bounded north by the Potomac river, containing 700 acres, about one half in wood; of the cleared land a considerable proportion is first river bottom; equal in fertility to any in Virginia; the upland is well situated for farming and of a good quality. There is also a mill seat on the Tract of considerable value. This farm is worth the attention of any person wishing to engage in the farming business, as it certainly is not exceeded by any in the county (perhaps state) as a farm of profit, and may be had on reasonable terms. Mr. John Bickler, who resides near the land, will show it, and Mr. Wm. McCarty of Loudoun county, or Mr. John W. Bronough of Georgetown, D. C. will make known the terms. If this Tract is not disposed of before the 2nd of MARCH, it will then be exposed to PUBLIC SALE, at Wiley's Tavern, on the road leading from Alexandria to Leesburg. The other Tract contains 1000 acres, and is the upper and most valuable part of the Tract I live on. It is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and bounded N. by Accotink creek. This Tract will be divided to suit purchasers, if found necessary. Persons wishing to purchase will apply to the subscriber living at Cedar Grove, who will show the land and make known the terms. CHARLES COUNTY COURT.

ON application to Charles County Court, by petition in writing of Samuel C. S. Jack, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Samuel C. S. Jack has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said Samuel C. S. Jack is in actual confinement for debt, and the said Samuel C. S. Jack having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, and answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said Samuel C. S. Jack be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the district of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of March next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court at Charlestown in said county, on the said third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause why the said Samuel C. S. Jack should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state as prayed. Given under my hand this 12th day of January 1819. JOHN BARNES, c. c. January 13

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES: Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges.

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various & vigorous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known. Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and foetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lawness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers is recommended.

HAIN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS. THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.
